

DECIDE

A group of organisms of the same species that interbreed and live in the same place.

- a. community
- b. organism
- c. biosphere
- d. population

COMPARE

Compare how a autotroph and a heterotroph obtain their food.

COMPLETE

The branch of biology called _____ is the study of interactions between organisms and their environment.

DESCRIBE

Describe the difference between a herbivore, carnivore and an omnivore.

DECIDE

A single living thing is called a(n) ____.

- a. community
- b. organism
- c. biosphere
- d. population

DETERMINE

Determine how many consumer levels are in this food chain.

COMPLETE

Nonliving parts of the environment are called _____.

IDENTIFY

Identify the step in the water cycle marked with a red star.

