

DECIDE

When both species benefits from the relationship it's called _____.

- a. symbiosis
- b. mutualism
- c. parasitism
- d. commensalism

DEFINE

Define biome.

COMPLETE

The ability of living things to survive the changes in their environment is called _____.

EXPLAIN

Explain what a pioneer species is.

DECIDE

_____ occurs when organisms of different species live together in a close, long-term relationship.

- a. Symbiosis
- b. Mutualism
- c. Parasitism
- d. Commensalism

COMPARE

Compare primary succession to secondary succession.

COMPLETE

_____ makes up the largest part of the biosphere, covering approximately 75% of the Earth's surface.

EXPLAIN

Explain the role of phytoplankton in the food webs of many aquatic ecosystems.